Hello Neighbourhood Support residents, Group Contacts and schools, the latest report from Community Constable Grant Heney follows, for distribution to your neighbours please.

NB: This is not for publication on any social media site.

Hi all

Looks like another wet weekend coming up....be careful on the wet roads out there

We have had a busy week family harm wise unfortunately. 14 cases to discuss today, normally there are 8-9.

Been quite strange because over the last 2 weeks there have been 4 cases of parents trying to stop their children using social media devices because they had been on them continually and the child often reacts angrily or physically.

I guess this is all a balancing act between the child having access to social media but not being totally immersed with it...not easy to do.

If you are having problems along these lines I suggest you start by trying to communicate and come to some sort of mutual agreement – no point in trying to take the device off them and creating problems really.

Not much crime in the district this week which is great.

Burglary, Little Sydney Valley – 2 laptops stolen.

House damaged Coppins Place.

Car accident Coastal Highway.

Take care out there

Grant Heney

Community Constable
