Rebecca,

The survey link and website will be going live tomorrow or Tuesday.

I have spoken with Anna McKenzie and she has sent out emails to various local groups / stakeholders arranging meetings to get their feedback. Other than that there was nothing new to share. She is trying to arrange a session with MDCA members in mid Sept but no firm date as yet.

I have not seen any draft of the survey.

Hello Paul

Did the council respond to your email from Wed. 24th? If so any new information that you can share? As you probably know the council has put out a release about the structure plan and the survey. Have you got advanced copies of this? We're planning on looking closely at the questions and then suggesting possible responses, though of course don't really know the format of the survey just yet.

Regards
