Meeting ID: 298 242 4384

Passcode: 052754

Nelson City Council and Tasman District Council Regional Climate Change Risk Assessment

Join one of our workshops.

Working together to understand the risks and opportunities posed by climate change, we can ensure our region thrives despite disruptions. That's why we need your expertise and collaboration. Please join us and bring your unique perspective.

Why attend?

Your role in this process is invaluable. You bring local knowledge and technical expertise that helps us grasp the nuances and urgency of the risks we face. In the workshop we will explore together; the most significant threats and opportunities from climate-related hazards facing the region. Prepare to be challenged and inspired!

RSVP by Friday 11 August 2023

If you can't attend, please come to the Catch-up session.
If you know others who would be interested – please forward this invitation.
For full information about the project see attachment.
